

Introduction to the Role of a Teaching Assistant (BC,SC)

This Introduction to the role of a Teaching Assistant course is aimed at those interested in a career in becoming a teaching assistant or learning support in an educational setting. You may be volunteering or starting to work in schools or even just considering this professional pathway.

Completion of this course will give you a deeper understanding of the role of a teaching assistant or learning support and will encourage you to consider what the role entails. You will have fun, hands on activities and it may help you progress to a career in Supporting Teaching & Learning.

Attendance: Introduction to the Role of a Teaching Assistant will take you 5 hours to complete over 1 session. This course is available at our campuses at Boston (Rochford) and Spalding, starting on the below dates:

Boston Campus (Rochford)

Monday 5th February 2024, 9:30am – 2:30pm

Spalding Campus

Friday 9th February 2024, 9:30am – 2:30pm